6TH ANNUAL BRIDE'S WALK ON MILWAUKEE'S SOUTH SIDE

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Peggy A. Romo West will participate in the 6th Annual Bride's Walk Against Domestic Violence this weekend at the UMOs Latina Resource Center.

"I'm happy to raise awareness of domestic violence and how it can negatively impact children and families in our community," Supervisor Romo West said. "Unfortunately, this abuse knows no boundaries and happens in our most intimate relationships. In 2009, domestic violence reached a 10-year high, claiming the lives of 67 individuals throughout Wisconsin. We march in the hopes that no more families will have to feel the devastating effects of domestic violence. We need to do everything we can to get the word out that there is help and hope to end domestic violence."

The Bride's Walk begins at the UMOs Latina Resource Center and ends with a reception at Tres Hermanos restaurant. The team registering the largest number of walkers will be honored during the reception.

Saturday, September 10, 2011, Registration at 10:00am
